ATTRACTIONS

Amphoe Mueang Udon Thani

The Monument of Krommaluang Prachaksinlapakhom (อนุสาวรีย์พลเอก พระเจ้าบรมวงศ์เธอ กรมหลวงประจักษ์ศิลปาคม)

This Monument is located in the heart of Udon Thani city. Born in 1856 as a son of King Rama IV (Phrabat Somdet Phra Chomklaochaoyuhua) and the King's Consort Sangwan (Chao Chom Manda Sangwan), Major General Prince Prachaksinlapakhom (Phon Tri Phra Chao Borommawongthoe Krommaluang Prachaksinlapakhom), as a regent to King Rama V, ruled the Northern Circle (later called the "Udon Circle") during 1893-1899. As the founder of Udon town in 1893, he set out the civil administration order and served important official duties for the public benefits. The Monument symbolizes the highest tribute paid to the prince by the people of Udon Thani and the ceremony to worship him is held on 18 January every year.

Nong Prachak Sinlapakhom Public Park (สวนสาธารณะหนองประจักษ์ศิลปาคม)

Located in the Udon Thani Municipality, this giant pond has existed before the establishment of Udon Thani town. Lying to the west of the town, it was formerly called "Nong Na Klue" (pond of salt) and later changed to "Nong Prachak" in honor of Major General HRH Prince Prachaksinlapakhom, the founder of Udon Thani town. In 1987, the Udon Thani Municipality improved the pond as a royal tribute to King Rama IX on the auspicious occasion of his 50th birthday anniversary. On an island in the pond, a small garden is filled with decorative and flowering plants, and there is a bridge linking the island with the mainland.

Wat Phothisomphon

Nong Prachak Sinlapakhom Public Park

Within the park, there is a fountain, a clock tower, and a playground. It serves as a place of recreation and exercise for the public.

Wat Phothisomphon (วัดโพธิสมภรณ์)

This temple is located on Pho Si Road in Tambon Mak Khaeng. It was built in the late reign of King Rama V. Maha Ammat Tri Phraya Sisuriyaratchawaranuwat (Phothi Netiphothi), Lord Lieutenant of the Udon Circle persuaded the villagers of Mak Khaeng to build the temple, which was commonly called "Wat Mai." Later, Phra Chao Worawongthoe Krommaluang Chinnawonsiriwat, the Supreme Patriarch, Wat Ratchabophitsathitmahasimaram, named the temple as "Wat Phothisomphon," to commemorate Phraya Sisuriyaratchawaranuwat, the temple builder. Inside, there is also a museum of revered monks famous for meditation.

Udon Thani City Museum

Prachaksinlapakhom commanded the construction of a new temple to replace Wat Non Mak Khaeng, the old deserted temple, and named it "Wat Matchimawat." Within its Wihan building, there is a white stone Buddha image under Naga (serpent) protection, or commonly known as "Luangpho Nak," which has been highly respected by the people of Udon Thani.

Chaopu-Chaoya Chinese Spirit Shrine

Udon Thani City Museum (พิพิธภัณฑ์เมืองอุดรธานี)

Located on Pho Si Road in Rachinuthit Building, this museum was initiated by Mr. Chaiporn Ratananaka, governor of Udon Thani province. It displays background aspects of Udon Thani, ranging from history, archaeology, natural science, geology, folk history, arts and culture, to the biography and honorable deeds of Krommaluang Prachaksinlapakhom, the founder of Udon Thani town. It's opened everyday expect on public Holiday from 08.30-16.30 hrs. For more information, contact Tel. 0 4221 2538.

Wat Matchimawat (วัดมัชฌิมาวาส)

This temple is located in Tambon Mak Khaeng. During the reign of King Rama V, Krommaluang

Chaopu-Chaoya Chinese Spirit Shrine (ศาลเจ้าปู่-ย่า)

This large and beautiful Chinese spirit shrine is located on Nittayo Road behind the train station near Nong Bua Market. Here, there is a small garden beside a lotus pond. Two Chinese pavilions stand in the pond, serving as a view point in pleasant and shady surroundings. The golden dragon of 99 metres long, to be used during the Thung Si Mueang annual fair in December, is also kept here.

Udorn Sunshine Orchid Farm (สวนกล้วยไม้หอมอุดรซันไฌน์)

This farm is located at 127 Mu 5, Soi Kamon Watthana. It is a nursery of Udorn Sunshine, a new fragrant Thai orchid species from cross-breeding Vanda with Josephine Van Berrow. The flower was registered as "Udorn Sunshine Orchid" or "Miss Udorn Sunshine" for a copyright with the World Orchid Society in the United Kingdom in 1988. Its scent is extracted to make perfume which is branded for sale with its species name. Opening hours are 08.00-17.00 hrs. Admission fee is 20 Baht per person. For more information, contact Tel. 0 4212 6405.

To get there: From town, drive along Highway No. 2 (Udon Thani-Nong Khai) for 5 kilometres and turn left to Highway No. 2024. The signpost to the farm is on your left.

Wat Pa Ban Tat (วัดป่าบ้านตาด)

This temple is located in Tambon Ban Tat. It covers an area of approximately 163 rai and generally features a shady forest. Inside its compound, wild animals are in abundance: pheasant, red jungle fowl, birds, squirrel, tree shrew, common wild pig etc. The temple is also a residence of Phra Achan Maha Bua Yannasampanno, the revered Buddhist master of meditation and a follower of Phra Achan Man Phurithatto, the late master. Here is an ideal place for those who determine to practise Dharma (Lord Buddha's teachings).

To get there: From town, drive along Highway No. 2 (Udon Thani-Khon Kaen) then turn right at Ban Khong Kheng intersection and go further for about 9 kilometres. The temple is not far from the community of Ban Tat.

Wat Thipphayaratnimit (วัดทิพยรัฐนิมิตร)

This temple is located on Naresuan Road,

Tambon Mak Khaeng, off the main road into Soi San Chao Mae Thapthim and opposite to a polytechnic school. It is another forest temple in the area of Amphoe Mueang Udon Thani and has a pleasant shady atmosphere. There is a large pagoda which contains Lord Buddha's relics. The pagoda is shaped like "Thanan," a utensil used in ancient times to scoop Lord Buddha's relics. A portrait of Luang Pu Thira Chitthammo, the present abbot, is displayed with basic living utensils for Buddhist monks in the pavilion. On the fourteenth waxing moon day of the twelfth lunar month, Thot Kathin (robe offering ceremony) and merit making to celebrate the abbot's birthday anniversary are held every year.

Ban Na Kha (บ้านนาข่า)

Located 16 km. from town along the Udon Thani – Nong Khai route (Highway No. 2), this village is on your right, opposite the Na Kha Community School. There is Khit-cloth weaving here and Khit-cloth products are available at reasonable prices. Travel to this village can be made by bus from a bus stop in front of Udon Thani Rajabhat University and Rang-sina Market.

Huai Luang Dam (เขื่อนห้วยหลวง)

This reservoir is located on the Udon Thani-Nong Bua Lam Phu Highway, off the main road at Km. 108 for another 9 kilometres. It is a large reservoir covering an area of about 20,000 rai, for the purposes of agriculture, fishery, and waterworks under the responsibility of the Royal Irrigation Department, Ministry of Agriculture and Co-operatives. As a tourist attraction, a scenic landscape is offered with a royal palace of the late Princess Mother. Prior contact is required for those to visit the place.

Historical Tourism and Study Site (Ho Chi Minh) (แหล่งศึกษาและท่องเที่ยวเชิงประวัติศาสตร์ (โฮจิมินห์))

is located in Ban Nong Hang (Nong On) Mu 4, Tambon Chiang Phin. It was a residence of Uncle Ho, who later became President Ho Chi Minh of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (North Vietnam), in 1928, when he came to stay in Udon Thani for carrying political campaigns and asking for support from the Vietnamese who lived in Udon Thani in his fight for the independence of Vietnam from France. He built a house, planted vegetables, raised chickens and pigs while educating the Vietnamese and training his followers to fight against France. He took the Vietnamese to help in the construction of Wat Phothi Somphon and Wat Ban Chik at the beginning of 1929. Then, he travelled to Sakon Nakhon and Nakhon Phanom before his return to Vietnam. He had fought against the French troops until regaining independence on 2 September, 1945. He was named as President on 2 March, 1946, and died in 1969.

Amphoe Ban Phue

Phu Phra Bat Historical Park (อุทยานประวัติศาสตร์ภูพระบาท)

This historical park is located at the foot of Mount Phu Phan, covering an area of 3,430 rai in Ban Tio, Tambon Mueang Phan. It displays the civilisation of mankind and changes in landscape of which structure is mostly composed of sandstone havingbeen eroded by nature to become rock formations of different sizes and patterns.

There are various interesting places as evidence of human life in the past:

Phra Phutthabat Bua Bok

Phra Phutthabat Bua Bok (พระพุทธบาทบัวบก)

This Buddha's footprint, built during 1920-1934, is on the left side of the way to the park headquarters. "Bua Bok" is a name of the plant growing in the forest and having leaves in the shape of a lotus leaf, locally called "Phak Nok." The plant was abundant in the area where the Buddha's footprint was found, so it has become the name of the place, or the name may originate from the words "Bo Bok," which mean "not being dry." The footprint features a bowl of around 60 cm. deep in the rocky ground, 1.93 m. long and 90 cm. wide. Formerly, a Mondop structure was built to house the footprint. In 1922, Phra Achan Sithat Suwanmacho replaced the Mondop with a pagoda called Phra That Chedi, and created a replica of the footprint to put on the existing one. The pagoda where Lord Buddha's relics are contained is in the shape of an angular lotus similar to Phra That Phanom. A fair to pay homage to Phra Phutthabat Bua Bok is held during the thirteenth waxing moon day to the full moon day of the third lunar month every year.

Phra Phutthabat Lang Tao (พระพุทธบาทหลังเต่า)

This Buddha's footprint is located to the south of Phra Phuttabat Bua Bok. It is around 25 cm. deep in the rocky ground and has a lotus image carved in relief in the centre. Since it is behind a stone shelter that looks like a turtle (Tao), the footprint is called "Phra Phuttabat Lang Tao."

Caves and Stone Shelters (ถ้ำและเพิงหินต่าง ๆ)

There is a scattering of caves and stone shelters within walking distance in the park area, such as Tham Lai Mue (Lai Mue Cave), Tham Non Sao-e (Non Sao-e Cave), Tham Wua Daeng (Wua Daeng Cave) etc. These caves were presumed to be a shelter of people in the Stone Age, and they drew figures of things, such as humans, hand, animals, and geometric designs, found in the caves. Stone shelters beautifully created by nature include Khok Ma Thao Barot, Ho Nang Usa, and Bo Nam Nang Usa. There is also a nice rocky ground called "Lan Hin Non Sao-e." These rocky formations enhanced an imagination of the generations after the era to compose the folk legend "Nang Usa-Thao Barot." In addition, fragments of boundary stone posts and sandstone carved into a Dvaravati-styled Buddha image were found at the stone shelters: Phoeng Hin Wat Pho Ta and Phoeng Hin Wat Luk Khoei.

Inside the park, a visitor centre offers information and maps. For more information, contact Tel. 0 4225 0616, 0 4225 1350. Opening hours: 08.00-16.30 hrs. Admission fee: 100 Baht. The park is 67 kilometres from town. Drive along Highway No. 2 (Udon Thani-Nong Khai), and turn left at Kilometres 13 to Highway No. 2021. Head for Amphoe Ban Phue for 42 kilometres, turn right and go on for 500 metres. Drive straight along Highway No. 2348 for another 12 kilometres and turn right for approximately 2 kilometres before reaching the park.

Phra Phutthabat Bua Ban (พระพุทธบาทบัวบาน)

Located on a hill in Tambon Mueang Phan, this is a site where there is an ancient Buddha's footprint housed in the Ubosot (ordination hall). Many pieces of Bai Sema (boundary stone) were excavated here. They were made of sandstone and carved into images of Thewada (male spirit) and Apsara (woman spirit), which is a mixture of Dvaravati and Lop Buri arts.

Wat Pa Ban Kho (วัดป่าบ้านค้อ)

This temple is located in Tambon Khuea Nam.

Wat Pa Ban Kho

Here, there is Phra Maha That Chedi Chaloem Barami Phra Nawamin, a pagoda that contains Lord Buddha's relics. Inside the pagoda, sculptures depict the history of Lord Buddha, jataka stories, and Buddha images in different attitudes. The temple is ideal for practitioners of Dharma (Buddha's teachings). It has been designated by the Udon Thani Administration Office as the Udon Thani Chaloem Phra Kiat Mind Development Centre. Both Thais and foreigners usually come to practise Dharma here. For more information contact Tel. 0 4225 0730-2.

To get there: From town, drive along Highway No. 2 (Udon Thani-Nong Khai), turn left at Kilometres 13 to Highway No. 2021 (Udon Thani-Ban Phue) and go further for 20 kilometres Then, turn right and take another 3 kilometres towards the temple.

Amphoe Na Yung

Na Yung-Nam Som National Park (อุทยานแห่งชาตินายูงน้ำโสม)

This national park is located in Ban Sawang, Mu 2, Tambon Na Yung.

Attractions of the park are:

Namtok Yung Thong (น้ำตกยูงทอง)

This waterfall is located on the ridge of Mount Phu Phan and Mount Phu Ya U, around 500 m. from the park headquarters. Its stream flows along attractive complicated boulders amid the greenery of trees. The small three-tiered waterfall has a pond where visitors can play. In the past, it was a habitat of peafowl, so the waterfall is called "Yung Thong" (golden peafowl).

Pha Daeng Viewpoint (จุดชมวิวผาแดง)

This viewpoint is around 1,500 metres. from the park headquarters and on the nature study trail of Namtok Yung Thong. Pha Daeng is a high steep sandstone cliff overlooking a beautiful panoramic view. Not far from Pha Daeng, there is a small cave where Luang Pu Man Phurithatto used to stay for insight development.

Namtok Yung Thong Nature Study Trail (เส้นทางศึกษาธรรมชาติน้ำตกยูงทอง)

This walking trail is to offer nature interpretation for visitors along the way through Namtok Yung Thong, Namtok Tat Noi, and Pha Daeng viewpoint, covering the distance of around 2,000 metres.

To get there: From town, go along Udon Thani-Nong Khai Highway for 15 kilometres. Turn left to Amphoe Ban Phue and head for Amphoe Nam Som. Turn right at Ban Sam Liam to Amphoe Na Yung and go further for around 15 kilometres. Turn right at Ban Sawang and take another 2 km. towards the park headquarters.

Wat Pa Phu Kon (วัดป่าภูก้อน)

is located in the Pa Na Yung and Pa Nam Som National Forest Reserve in the Ban Na Kham Yai community, Tambon Ban Kong, which occupies the area of three provinces: Udon Thani, Loei, and Nong Khai. The aims of building the temple are to preserve the abundance of forest and water source, as well as wildlife and variety of plants, also to strengthen Buddhism, and to be a peaceful sanctuary for Dhamma practice. The temple is housing the Buddha's relics enshrined inside the head of the Phra Ruang Rot Si Burapha Buddha image, which is installed as a principal Buddha at the front of the Phra Pathom Rattana Buraphachan Maha Chedi.

Wat Pa Phu Kon

In addition, this is the place where the 20-metre-long reclining Buddha, Phra Phutthasaiyat Lokanat Satsada Maha Muni is lying exquisitely in the posture of the ultimate nirvana, made of white marble from the city of Carrara in Italy. For more information contact, Tel. 0 4228 1439.

To get there: It is 124 kilometres from the city. Follow Highway No. 2 (Udon Thani-Nong Khai) until reaching Kilometres 13, make a left turn onto Highway No. 2021 (Udon Thani-Ban Phue) and head for Ban Na Kham Yai Amphoe Na Yung and turn left to Wat Pa Phu Kon.

Amphoe Nong Han

Ban Chiang National Museum (พิพิธภัณฑสถานแห่งชาติ บ้านเชียง)

This museum is located in Ban Chiang, Tambon Ban Chiang. It is an important historical site of Northeast Thailand and Southeast Asia. The Fine Arts Department surveyed and excavated the Ban Chiang archaeological site during 1974-1975. The evidence found revealed the pre-historical age of the site of around 5,600-1,800 years ago. The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) registered the site as a World Heritage Site of history at Carthage, Tunisia in December 1992.

Ban Chiang National Museum

The museum is divided into five parts:

Part I: Somdet Phra Srinagarindra Borommaratchachonnani Building (อาคารสมเด็จพระศรีนครินทราบรมราชชนนี)

This service part consists of a room for selling tickets, books, souvenirs, a meeting room, and a hall for rotational exhibitions.

Part II: Galyani Vadhana Building (อาคารกัลยาณิวัฒนา)

It displays permanent exhibitions including His Majesty King Bhumibol and Ban Chiang, Ban Chiang archaeological implementations and operations, archaeological excavation pits, artefacts from the archaeological excavations at Wat Pho Si Nai, the prehistorical culture of Ban Chiang, a discovery of the lost Bronze Age, and Ban Chiang: World Heritage and distribution of the Ban Chiang culture.

Part III: Thai Phuan Exhibition Building (อาคารนิทรรศการไทพวน)

There is a display of the history, ways of living, identity, wisdom, and traditions of the Thai Phuan ethnic minority group of Ban Chiang who had settled here around 200 years ago, and named this village "Ban Chiang." The Thai Phuan people have lived here to the present.

Part IV: Wat Pho Si Nai Excavation Pit (หลุมขุดค้นวัดโพธิ์ศรีใน)

This is the first site museum in Thailand, displaying a permanent exhibition of the procedure for archaeological excavation in which the artefacts found in layers of soil have been maintained for visitors to study, which mostly are earthenware buried with corpses.

Part V: Thai Phuan House (A Memorial of the Royal Visit) (เฮือนไทพวน อนุสรณ์สถานในการเสด็จพระราชดำเนิน)

This house is situated 700 metres. away from the Ban Chiang Museum. Formerly, it belonged to Mr. Phot Montriphithak who gave it to the Fine Arts Department. This area is an ancient site where an archaeological excavation was conducted and many ancient objects were found. Their Majesties the King and Queen visited the place on 20 March, 1972.

The house won the award for outstanding conservation of art and architecture in 2007 from the Association of Siamese Architects under the Royal Patronage of His Majesty the King.

To get there: From Udon Thani town, the total distance is around 55 kilometres. Take Highway No. 22 (Udon Thani-Sakon Nakhon). After slightly passing the intersection to Amphoe Ban Dung, a signpost to the museum is on your left. Go on for around 8.2 km. before reaching the museum. It opens on Tuesday-Sunday and public holiday from 08.00-16.30 hrs. Admission fee: 150 Baht. For more information, contact Tel. 0 4220 8340-41.

Nong Han

A Lake of Pink Water Lilies, Nong Han, Kumphawapi

A Lake of Pink Water Lilies, Nong Han, Kumphawapi (ทะเลบัวแดงหนองหาน กุมภวาปี)

Nong Han is a natural source of water covering an area of more than 22,500 rai. This lake is rich in various species of fish, birds, and aquatic plants. Its unique ecosystems are of interest to academics both Thais and foreigners who have come to continuously conduct research and study. During October to February of every year, the water lily plants in the lake will grow above the water surface, produce new leaves and buds, and bloom. The blooming season is from December to February. Visitors can admire the beauty of the pink water lilies from 06.00-10.00 a.m. A boat service is available at Wat Ban

Diam, Mu 5, Tambon Chiang Wae. The boat rent is 300-500 Baht for 10 persons. Contact can be made to the Tourist Boat Service Group at Tel. 08 9395 0871.

To get there: Follow Highway 2 (Udon Thani-Khon Kaen) for 32 km and go on in the direction to Ban Na Di-Ban Nong Mek for about 14 kilometres. For more information, contact Tel. 0 4223 6022 and 0 4285 1933.

Amphoe Ban Dung

Kham Chanot (คำชะโนด)

Located at Wat Sirisuttho in Tambon Wang Thong, this sacred place gains respect from villagers in neighbouring areas. It is said to be an entrance to the water world, a legendary place concerning the great Naga (serpent) according to a belief among Lao and Isan villagers. Nowadays, the place is densely covered with Chanot trees, which resemble a mixture of palm and coconut trees. Inside, there is a shrine of Chaopu Sisuttho and a sacred well for worship.

To get there: From Udon Thani town, the total distance is around 101 kilometres. Take the Udon Thani-Sakon Nakhon route and turn left to Amphoe Ban Dung, for 84 kilometres. From Amphoe Ban Dung, drive on another 17 km. before reaching Kham Chanot.

Amphoe Kumphawapi

Phrathat Don Kaeo or Phra Maha That Chedi (พระธาตุดอนแก้ว หรือพระมหาธาตุเจดีย์)

Located in Mu 5, Ban Don Kaeo, this pagoda stands in the centre of Wat Maha That Chedi (Wat Phrathat Don Kaeo). It is an angular pagoda resembling Phrathat Phanom, with a height of over 18 wa. The main body was built into 2 tiers: each has sculptures of Lord Buddha's history and heaven-hell story. This square

Phrathat Don Kaeo or Phra Maha That Chedi

sandstone pagoda is around 1 sok long and has an outer mortared surface. It was presumed that Wat Phrathat Don Kaeo, Bai Sema (boundary stone), and Sao Hin (stone post) were built in around 12-13 A.D.

To get there: From Udon Thani town, take Highways No. 2 and No. 2350 to Amphoe Kumphawapi. Turn left at the natural garden and drive on for another 3.4 kilometres. The total distance is 50 km. from Amphoe Mueang Udon thani.

Amphoe Nong Saeng

Namtok Than Ngam Forest Park (วนอุทยานน้ำตกธารงาม)

This forest park is located in Tambon Nong Saeng in the forest areas of Khun Huai Sam Thak and Khun Huai Kong Si, covering an area of 78,125 rai. It was declared as a forest park on 19 December, 1984. Around Than Ngam Waterfall is Mixed Deciduous Forest; major species are Ta baek, Pradu, Daeng, Makha mong, Chingchan, and Krabok. The waterfall contains water at certain times; there is a lot of water during the rainy season.

Interesting points in the forest park include a cliff, a beautiful cave and a stone ground. The stone ground, or commonly called "Lae," covers a large area with a scattering of overlapping giant rocks, and overlooks a scenic view. No accommodation is provided by the park.

Accommodation: Visitors are required to bring their own tents for an overnight stay. For more information, contact Tel. 0 4222 1725.

To get there: The park is 6 km. away from Amphoe Nong Saeng. Three routes are available:

Route I Udon Thani-Ban Lao-Khok Lat-Amphoe Nong Saeng, totalling around 35 kilometres.

Route II Udon Thani-Ban Kham Kling-Ban Tat-Amphoe Nong Saeng, totalling around 30 kilometres.

Route III Udon Thani-Huai Koeng-Amphoe Nong Saeng, totalling around 60 kilometres.

Phu Foi Lom Eco-tourism Study Centre (ภูฝอยลม)

This ecotourism site is located in Pa Phan Don-Pakho National Forest Reserve, covering an area of 192,350 rai on the Phu Phan Noi Range in Tambon Thap Kung. It is considered as one of the best nature study centres of the Northeast region: there are demonstration beds of plants, the Garden of Wild Plants in Celebration of Her Majesty the Queen's Sixtieth Birthday Anniversary and a viewpoint overlooking Udon Thani town. Accommodation and camping sites are available for an overnight stay. For more information, contact Tel. 0 4291 0902, 0 4225 0207, 08 9710 2633.

To get there: Drive along the Udon Thani-Loei route and take a turn at Kilometres 9 to Ban Lao.

Amphoe Wang Sam Mo

Wang Sam Mo Forest Park (วนอุทยานวังสามหมอ)

This forest park is located in Tambon Nong Kung Thap Ma in Pa Bayao-Pa Hua Na Kham-Pa Nong Kung Thap Ma-Pa Na Yung-Pa Nong Ya Sai National Forest Reserve. It was declared as a forest park on 19 January, 1984, covering an area of around 18,750 rai. Most of the area is a plain being covered with Pa Daeng or Deciduous Dipterocarp Forest, Yang, and Ta khian thong. There are creeks and islets where water flows all year round. Wild animals found are Malayan flying lemur, palm civet, civet, green pigeon, etc.

Interesting places include:

Wang Yai (วังใหญ่)

This large pond has water flowing all year round. Lam Phan Chat creek flows through the pond where there are rapids and boulders amid a cool atmosphere suitable for recreation. Visitors can play in the pond or do activities: whitewater rafting, paddling and fishing.

Kaeng Mon Noi (แก่งมนน้อย)

These rapids are around 800 m. away from Wang Yai pond, along Lam Phan Chat creek. Cascades against boulders which were eroded by water form beautiful waterfalls at certain points along their course.

Kaeng Hin Hom (แก่งหินฮอม)

These large split-level rapids are around 100 metres. from Kaeng Mon Noi. The resonant roar is heard in the distance during the rainy season when there is a lot of downpour.

More ponds and rapids, such as Kaeng Khan, Wang Kaeng Kham, Wang Mak Lam, etc. can be admired in the park.

Accommodation: No accommodation is provided by the park. Visitors are required to take their own tents for an overnight stay. Contact the chief of the Wang Sam Mo Forest Park for advance permission. For further information, contact the National Park, Wildlife and Plant Conservation Department, Tel. 0 2562 0760.

To get there: From Udon Thani town, take the Kumphawapi-Si That-Wang Sam Mo route (Highway No. 2023). Turn left to Highway No. 227 and drive on to Tambon Nong Kung Thap Ma. Follow the lane of the main road towards the park for 9 kilometres. The park is 20 km. away from Amphoe Wang Sam Mo. The total distance from Udon Thani town is 120 kilometres.

Amphoe Kut Chap

Tham Sing (ถ้ำสิงห์)

This lion cave is located on the Phu Phan Range in Ban Nong Charoen, Mu 7.
Attractions inside the cave are:

Sam Ton Mak (ซำต้นหมาก)

This is an area where a lot of betel palm trees grow. During the rainy season, the area is always flooded. Villagers usually take their cattle to lap water here. It is a shady and pleasant place.

Lan Thap Khwai (ลานทับควาย)

This is a broad ground with a roof-shaped rock formation and surrounding wild plants. Lan Thap Khwai literally means a cattle rest ground. In the old days, villagers brought their cattle to feed and took shelter here for a lunch break.

Tham Khok Ma (ถ้ำคอกม้า)

This stable cave is a shelter of overlapping rock formations with a hole that a person can walk through. Its name relates to the legend of Usa-Barot.

Tham Ruesi (ถ้ำฤาษี)

This hermit cave features a boulder of 2.20 m. high with an entrance in the shape of a shelter of overlapping rock formations.

Other interesting places are Bo Nam Phayanak, Tham Sahai Kep Sabiang, Lat Khom, Lat Kha Noi, Bo Nam Manora, Tham Nok Yung, Suan Hin Mahaisawan, etc.

To get there: The cave is 45 kilometres away from Udon Thani town. Take Highway No. 2263 (Udon Thani-Kut Chap). Pass Ban Nong Khong, Ban Nong Charoen, and Ban Nong Mek. Turn left at the T-junction of Wat Charoen Sattha Samakkhi to the Phu Lon Sangha abode. Go further for around 3 kilometres to the foot of Mount Phu Phan and walk another 3 kilometres to the cave.
